The Presentation of the Augsburg Confession – This week the church remembers, the Presentation of the Augsburg Confession June 25, 1530. This is the foundational confession of the Lutheran Church, since it was not only 1 man (Luther) but a group of Christians bound together to lay their confession and list of church abuses before the Emperor Charles V. The appeal to the Emperor and other church leaders in presenting the Augsburg Confession was to “embrace and maintain the future of one pure and true religion under one Christ.” Although, differences have continued within the one holy catholic church, our confession has not. Zion’s constitution and name have retained what our Lutheran fathers confessed so long ago: Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Unaltered Augsburg Confession.

The following Lectionary Summary, provided by the LCMS, serves as a guide to help understand the theme of the readings for each Sunday as well as how they fit into the particular season of the Church Year.

Faith Trusts in Christ for Life Eternal

“Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the living God.” So confessed St. Peter. And Christ promised to build His Church on it by the forgiveness of sins (Matt. 16:16–19). He does this so we don’t try to build the Church ourselves, on this or that person, or by any human means. Let no one boast in men, whether Paul or Cephas, for all are yours, and you are Christ’s, and Christ is God’s (1 Cor. 3:21–23). The same Lord who worked through Peter’s ministry worked also through Paul’s and is still at work in His Gospel and Sacraments (Gal. 2:7–8). The Church of every age must be recalled to hear the Word of this Gospel—the free forgiveness of sins for Christ’s sake apart from the Law—and believe. The Holy Spirit makes no distinction among men, but cleanses hearts by faith alone. So will we be saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus (Acts 15:7–11). Both were imprisoned (Acts 12:1–11), both wrote Scripture (2 Pet. 3:15–16), both opposed the world—and sometimes each other (Gal. 2:11–16)—but all that the truth of the gospel might be preserved for us (v. 5).

Fresh altar flower arrangements are always a welcomed addition to our service and may be donated to honor a friend or family member, to remember a loved one, to celebrate a birthday or anniversary, to offer thanksgiving.
